

Grapes for good[®] trail

Visit our supporting wineries and do good for conservation.

Premium tasting experience

Spend a day exploring Langhorne Creek, located just 55 minutes from Adelaide, visiting the participating Grapes for Good[®] wineries – each offering a unique hosted tasting experience. Learn the history of this incredible region and taste some of Australia's best wines.

Bleasdale

Bleasdale is one of the oldest wineries in Australia – and one of it's most highly awarded. Take a journey through time by walking between 130-year-old hand-hewn red gum vats in the oldest part of the winery to view the iconic Red Gum Press built in 1892 before tasting some of Langhorne Creeks finest wines.

Bremerton

Bremerton Wines is a family-owned winery where warm hospitality and award-winning wines come together. Experience estate-grown wines alongside regionally inspired platters and pizzas, and stock up from our curated regional pantry. Explore art exhibitions, relax on the lawns and discover why Bremerton is a favourite destination for visitors to Langhorne Creek.

Kimbolton

Step into Kimbolton Wines and experience an architecturally designed cellar door crafted from repurposed shipping containers in the heart of Langhorne Creek. Enjoy guided tastings, premium estate-grown wines, peaceful vineyard surrounds, and sweeping views from the rooftop deck – the perfect spot to relax with a glass of wine and regional grazing platters.

Lake Breeze Wines

Lake Breeze Wines has built an enviable reputation for consistently producing outstanding wines. The Follett family has grown grapes in Langhorne Creek for over 130 years and made wine since 1987. Lake Breeze is renowned for its beautiful vineyard setting, welcoming cellar door and exceptional restaurant experience.

Bremerton

14 Kent Town Rd
Cellar door open
10am – 5pm

Kimbolton

29 Burleigh St
Cellar door open 11am – 4pm

Bleasdale

1640 Langhorne Creek Rd
Cellar door open 10am – 5pm

Only 35 minutes to Monarto Safari Park

Lake Breeze Wines

319 Step Rd
Cellar door open 10am – 5pm

Visit our website
for full details
and to book your Tasting Trail
Experience

